

MORNING APPEAL

TUESDAY, JANUARY 28, 1879

A BIG MEETING IN VIRGINIA CITY.

The following telegram received at 10 o'clock last evening gives an idea of the interest felt in Storey county in the greatest question now agitating the people of Nevada:

VIRGINIA, January 29, 1878.
 EDITOR APPEAL.—An immense meeting is being held in the Opera House composed of the leading business men and tax-payers of Storey county to hear H. R. Mighels' lecture on railroad fares and freights.
 [Signed.] JONAS SEELY.

EXTRAORDINARY SUNDAY-SCHOOL EXHIBITION.

It is not an uncommon thing to hear Nevada people growling about the way they are persistently misrepresented by the eastern press. Ever since the picture of a lot of men with their pants in their boots, dancing at an Episcopal festival in Carson, appeared in a New York illustrated paper, we have been disposed to think that Carson was a malignant locality. A case of juvenile depravity, however, came to our notice a few days ago, which is sufficient to make a man lose all faith in early Christian training. A few days ago one of the most outrageous confidence games on record was practiced by a lot of juveniles in this city under cover of the Christian religion. Willie Davis, son of the Rector of the Episcopal church of Carson, and the three sons of the editor of the APPEAL, (the only religious newspaper published in the State, terms $8 a year, in advance) were the leading spirits of the swindle. It appears that the parson's son, while running about the vestry of the church, found a lot of scriptural scenes painted on glass slides, to be used in magic lantern exhibitions. These scenes were all of an orthodox character. Samuel at prayer, Daniel storming Palestine, Moses in the Mount of Olives, The Children of Ham Crossing the Caspian Sea, Ajax Defying the Lightning rod agent and other well-known scenes suitable for a Sunday-school entertainment. About the same time the children of the journalist came across an old magic lantern in the attic and joined forces with the parson's son. It was then agreed upon to give a show for the benefit of the Sunday School and the general cause of Christianity in Carson. The offspring of the divine insisted on one third of the receipts, after all expenses, should go to the Diocesan Mission Fund. After considerable argument the journalist agreed, provided a portion of the money could be appropriated to the founding of a Sunday School Monthly to be called The Lamp of Faith. The preliminaries being settled, the boys next proceeded to steal a lot of blank cards from the APPEAL office and wrote thereon:

GRAND SUNDY SKOOL EXIBISHUN

They then went into the field and sold tickets (cash in advance) to Mrs. Bender, Miss Clapp and "Pant," when the supply of paste boards gave out. The combination then disbanded; and the receipts (30 cents) were invested in molasses candy and peanuts. The show never came off and the ticket holders are still holding the cards (one handed) and awaiting developments. The question now arises does the vigorous religious training given their children by divines and journalists really tend to elevate the young to a better and purer mode of life?

ON SATURDAY night a young man dropped into the APPEAL office and said that he was a journalist from the Bay who had been disappointed in his aspirations for a Senatorial clerkship. He wanted a commission to report the cock-fight on Carson street. A note was written to the doorkeeper to let him in and he vanished in the darkness, with a hurried "thank-you." About midnight the editor, starting for home, stumbled over a man lying near the door, and when dragged into the light he was recognized as the new volunteer sporting editor. He was blind drunk. The following notes were translated from his diary: "Jan. 1st.—Reached here to-day. Everybody promised to vote for me. Am satisfied no one knows that I am a non-resident. Jan. 2d.—Have captured House, Senate, lobby and all hands. Jan. 3d.—Went to Virginia to see the sights. Lost $50 playing poker at Washoe Club. Jan. 4th.—Borrowed $50 of Pete Canavan on strength of being a railroad lobbyist. Jan. 5th.—Got drunk. Jan. 6th.—Beat like the devil; only got six votes. Got drunk. Jan. 25th.—Reporting cock-fight for APPEAL. Bet $3 on red cock; lost. Bet $5 on black cock; lost. Won $10 on gray cock; couldn't get my money. Man said I had bet $10 with him on red cock; licked me till I gave it up; never saw him before. Was treated nine times." The rest of the notes are illegible.

YESTERDAY afternoon, after the adjournment of the Senate, a number of Senators congregated in the upper hall of the Capitol building and began pitching half dollars for "keeps." The game caused more excitement than any bill yet introduced, and a large crowd collected to watch the fun. It will be a proud moment for journalists and Democrats when they learn that Hon. George W. Cassidy, of the Enterprise, won all the loose silver ($10 50) of the crowd in twenty minutes.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

Met at 1:10 P. M. President in the Chair.

GENERAL FILE.

Farrell's Senate bill—To enable the Legislature to grant leave of absence to county and State officers.

Cassidy suggested an amendment so that County Commissioners may have power to grant leave to county officers and the Legislature to State officers. Referred to a special committee of three, consisting of Messrs. Farrell, Cassidy and Doolin, to consider such action.

Cassidy's Senate bill No. 48—To provide for payment of rewards. (Rewards for the killing as well as arrest of stage robbers.) Rules suspended, considered engrossed and put upon its final passage.

Mr. Boardman thought that the bill was a dangerous one from the fact that it seems to offer a reward for the taking of life rather than for the protection of the same. He thought a law might be enacted providing for the payment of such claims by the Legislatures. Creswell stated that the agents of Wells, Fargo & Co. were gentlemen of honor, and would not resort to the extreme penalty of death except in case of actual necessity. He would like to have an additional $100 put upon each scalp taken.

Mr. McConnell thought hanging too good for stage robbers, and that they ought to be killed on sight.

Stewart considered it going back to the dark ages to place such laws upon our statute books.

Cassidy stated that circumstances had arisen which seemed to demand that a reward should be paid a man who was obliged to kill a robber in attempting to arrest him. If they did kill they saved the State immense expense and deserved as much reward as if they merely made an arrest. Bill lost. Ayes 10; noes 13. Mr. Connell gave notice to reconsider.

Boardman's Senate bill No. 17—To create a State Board of Health. Laid on the table. Creswell's Senate bill No. 11—To create a State Board of Equalization. On motion of the author it was laid on the table, with the statement that he desired to introduce a substitute.

Blair's Senate bill No. 38—To regulate proceedings in civil cases. (Exempting two cows for lawyers, ministers, etc., same as for farmers. Laid on the table for one day.

By Harlow, from Committee on Engrossment—That several bills, so ordered, were correctly engrossed.

Sharon, our United States Senator in Congress, for the able and prompt manner in which he introduced and endorsed the resolutions of instructions of the present Legislature, requesting our delegation in both houses of Congress to support the Reagan bill, known as the anti-discrimination bill in relation to the reduction of freights and fares on the Central Pacific Railroad. Adopted.

By Davies—Requesting the Governor to transmit a copy of the foregoing resolution. Adopted.

BURNED BY USING GASOLINE—A CORRECTION.—Instead of being burned by the explosion of a kerosene lamp, as reported, Mrs. Lufkin received her injuries by the sudden ignition of some gasoline with which she was cleaning some kid gloves by lamplight. She was several feet away from the lamp when the explosion took place—which shows that so rapid is the evaporation of gasoline that one cannot with safety use it anywhere near a fire or stove or by lamplight. Indeed it is a very dangerous liquid to have about, so very volatile and inflammable it is. Mrs. Lufkin was burned on the hands and arms and had her hair and eyebrows singed. Her little boy, who was present, saved her life by his presence of mind. She is, we are glad to say, getting on very comfortably.

Mrs. C. L. DUNCAN presented her husband with an eight-pound baby yesterday morning. May it live long and prosper.

ALWAYS AHEAD.

Instead of waiting for the turn of the season before getting new goods, we take pleasure in informing our patrons that we have just received a Complete New Stock of Dress Goods and exquisite Fancy Goods which we offer at such remarkably low prices that they would induce the most stingy father and husband to dive down for his bottom dollar.

We have received a consignment of One Hundred Cloaks with positive instructions to close them out at any price, and we will do it. MRS. J. SHEYER & CO.

ANOTHER WONDERFUL CURE

EFFECTED BY

CALIFORNIA ELASTIC TRUSS!

CALIFORNIA ELASTIC TRUSS COMPANY.—W. J. HORNE, President.—Dear Sir, I feel that I owe it to you and to humanity to write the fact that I have been SUBSTANTIALLY CURED of a bad case of Rupture of thirty years standing by one of your incompressible Trusses, which I purchased from you three months ago. I cannot describe the suffering, both physical and mental, that I have undergone during that period, and how I feel like a new being. I have worn all kinds of Trusses, both Steel and Elastic, and never received any permanent relief until I tried yours. Its simplicity of construction, and facility with which it can be adjusted, and the ease and perfect freedom to the motions of the body with which it can be worn without causing any irritation, are its chief merits, and it is a perfect support. I have not had any sign of a return of the rupture since the first day I put it on, and feel that I am perfectly CURED. It is invaluable, and the fact should be known to the world. You can refer any one to me on the subject of their merits. I am, truly yours, ALFRED J. BURKE, Chief Mail Clerk S. F. Daily Evening Post, San Francisco, July 20, 1878.

A Physician's 45 Years' Experience.

W. J. HORNE, Esq.—Dear Sir: For some time past I have been used in my practice the California Elastic Truss, with entire satisfaction in most cases of complicated hernia of both sexes. During a practice of forty five years I have found no truss that would, with the same ease and certainty, retain the required adjustment, the pressure being always under the immediate control of the patient. The simplicity and ease of application is of itself a guarantee to every experienced physician. I have the honor to remit by mail the amount due, knowing that I contribute to the alleviation of afflicted humanity. Yours, truly, J. P. TIGHE, M. D.

Send for Illustrated Catalogue and Price List—Giving Full Information and Rules for Measuring.

N. B.—The California Elastic Truss is not for sale by any Druggist in Carson City. They prefer to sell Eastern truss, on which they can make a large profit. Send direct to the CALIFORNIA ELASTIC TRUSS COMPANY, 720 Market street, San Francisco.
